J-Mack Ferry Electrical Upgrades Two-Day Temporary Closures Start Monday, March 18th

SOLANO COUNTY – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will temporarily suspend service of the J-Mack Ferry for two days starting Monday, March 18th to make necessary electrical upgrades to the vessel.

The J-Mack is scheduled to be closed, Monday, March 18th and Tuesday, March 19th from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. both days. For safety, crews must perform the electrical upgrades during daylight hours. All work is weather permitting.

The J-Mack, also known as the Steamboat Slough Ferry, provides around the clock service on State Route 220 between Ryer Island in Solano County and Grand Island in Sacramento County.

J-Mack Ferry Detour

During the service interruption, motorists are advised to use the Miner's Slough Bridge or the Real McCoy Ferry, also known as the Cache Slough Ferry.

For the latest information, motorists can call the Caltrans Ryer Island Ferry Update Line at (510) 622-0120.
